The school needs a better curriculum. I feel like this school hurts my chances at a bright future. Especially now that they aren't funding AP classes. They don't help kids get prepared for college enough.

The more adult attention our young people have access to, the better. Our Alumni Association helped so much with our NHD projects. We also had students from the Temple University Education Dept. for several months who made a big difference in my classroom, helping students with differentiated instruction...
